

BIOGRAPHICAL INFORMATION
ANJALI R. SWIENTON

Anjali Swienton is the Director of Outreach for the National Clearinghouse for Science, Technology and Law (NCSTL) at Stetson University College of Law in Gulfport, FL and the President of SciLawForensics, Ltd, a forensic science and legal consulting firm in Germantown, MD. Ms. Swienton is an Advisory Commissioner on the AAFS's Forensic Science Education Programs Accreditation Commission (FEPAC), has served on the AAFS program committee in various capacities for the last seven years including the 2009-2010 Criminalistics Section Chair. Ms. Swienton previously worked as a contractor to the National Institute of Justice's (NIJ) Investigative and Forensic Sciences Division where she served as a subject matter expert on the Attorney General's National Commission on the Future of DNA Evidence, a coordinator for NIJ's five annual Conferences on DNA and Science and the Law and the facilitator of several technical working groups (TWGs) on various forensic issues. Prior to NIJ, Ms. Swienton worked as a staff DNA analyst at Cellmark Diagnostics where she conducted forensic DNA testing and provided expert testimony across the country. She holds a B.A. degree in Biology from The Johns Hopkins University, an M.F.S. degree in Forensic Science from The George Washington University, and a J.D. degree from the American University, Washington College of Law.